

I am writing to voice my opposition to the proposed lifting of the regulations which currently ban cross-ownership of print and broadcast media in the same area. I believe that the ban serves the public by ensuring that no single voice monopolizes the point of view expressed by local media.